

Family Media Agreement

I will . . .

Stay Safe

- I will not give out any private information, such as my full name, date of birth, address, or phone number, or meet someone I've met online without my family's permission.
- I will keep my passwords private and only share them with my family.
- I will not post photos of others without their permission.
- I will tell a trusted adult if anyone online makes me feel uncomfortable, sad, or unsafe. I will recognize that my safety is more important to my family than anything else.
- I will not view anything that I know my parents or teachers would deem inappropriate.

Think First

- I will communicate kindly when I use the internet or my mobile phone. I will not tease, embarrass, or bully others.
- I know that the Internet is public, and I will respect myself and others when I'm using it.
- I will not pretend that I created something that's not actually my own work.
- I realise that everything I put on the internet is forever, and can be viewed by anyone, anywhere at any time.

Stay Balanced

- I know that not everything I read, hear, or see online is true.
- I will respect my family's decisions for what I'm allowed to watch, play with, or listen to, and when.
- I will continue to enjoy the other activities – and people – in my life.
- I will remember that anything I do will be public property and that my parents and the School may look at any of my work or emails at any time.
- I will try to limit my on-screen time to no more than a reasonable time daily.

Mobile Phones

- I confirm my parents/guardians are aware that I bring a mobile phone to school.
- I am aware that I need to hand in my mobile phone to my Teacher on arrival to School and that mobile phones are only to be used on school grounds after 3.15pm for the purpose of contacting parents/guardians.

In exchange, my Family agrees to . . .

- recognise that media is a big part of my life, even if they don't always understand why,
- talk with me about what worries them and why, before saying "no",
- talk to me about my interests and help me find stuff that is appropriate and fun.
